

Executive Management Board

Caroline Knoeri

French citizen (born 1975)

Chief Human Resources Officer (CHRO)

Member of the Executive Management Board since 2025

Key attributes:

Caroline Knoeri brings over two decades of international HR leadership experience across various industries. Having grown up in France and studied and worked in an international environment, Caroline has an understanding of cultural nuances that will prove invaluable as we integrate our new French colleagues from KeriMedical and further strengthen the connections within our global organisation. As CHRO, Caroline drives our people strategy with a focus on talent development and organisational excellence. She plays a key role in harmonising HR processes and promoting a work culture that reflects our commitment to learning, psychological safety and employee engagement, while fostering collaboration within the Medartis Group.

Career highlights:

Caroline's extensive international experience in human resources leadership includes her previous role as Head of Human Resources at Bank Vontobel in Switzerland. Her career encompasses more than twenty years in senior HR positions across various industries, including Google's Engineering and Products business in EMEA and GE's real estate division.

Qualifications:

Caroline studied at Sciences Po in Paris and Freie Universität in Berlin (1993-1997). She holds a Master's degree in Human Resources and International Mobility from École normale supérieure in Paris (1998).